The City Of Charleston

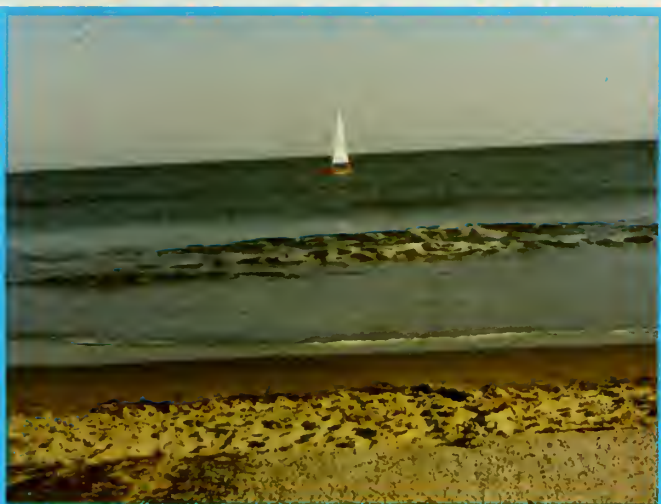

Charleston is a city full of culture and history that has managed to maintain its past while moving toward the future.

The beauty of the "Holy City" has attracted attention all over the nation. Each year tourists come to enjoy the sites of Ft. Sumter, the Battery, Charlestown Landing, Magnolia Gardens, Middleton Place, and the Marketplace.

As a student of Baptist College, one has many opportunities to explore and enjoy the beautiful city of Charleston. The city of Charleston, being a superb tourist attraction in itself, welcomes visitors who are sure to have an inspiring and cultural visit.

"The purpose of Orientation," as stated by chairman Billy Wright, "is to draw the freshmen into the Baptist College family and to familiarize them with their new home away from home." The theme "Sailing with the Bucs" carried visions of fun and good times in the future. This year's festivities included: Play Fair, the President's Reception, Club Drop-In, watching T.V. in the Buc room and a tour of the proposed chapel — which left you wanting more. This is what it's all about — a one week crash course on learning to become a college student and a member of the Baptist College Family.

And May Day

May is the month of beauty. This is evident at Baptist College during May Day Festivities.

Terry Cook, a Business major from Greenville, was chosen as the 1981 May Queen. Lisa Harris, an Education major from Summerville was chosen as Maid of Honor.

The May Court consisted of Cindi Broome, Molly Brown, Michelle Brown, Beth Dyches, Gay Dyches, Cheryl Foster, Cheryl Frost, Kim Goggans, Jodie Major, and Lee Ann Mullins.

The Danny Leonard Orchestra and Dr. David Cuttino provided music.

The Season For Jr-Sr And

"This is the BIG NIGHT!" "I forgot to make reservations for supper." "What am I going to do with my hair!!"

You could hear these outcries throughout the dorms as students got ready for the Junior-Senior. It was a night that everyone planned for weeks and looked forward to with anxiousness.

This year's Junior-Senior was held at the Oaks Country Club in Goose Creek. The theme "Southern Nights" fit perfectly with the old plantation house.

The Big Event . . . Graduation

"I should have stayed on the farm." This was the thought pondering many B.C.C. Seniors as they waited for the line to move forward to their place among the graduates.

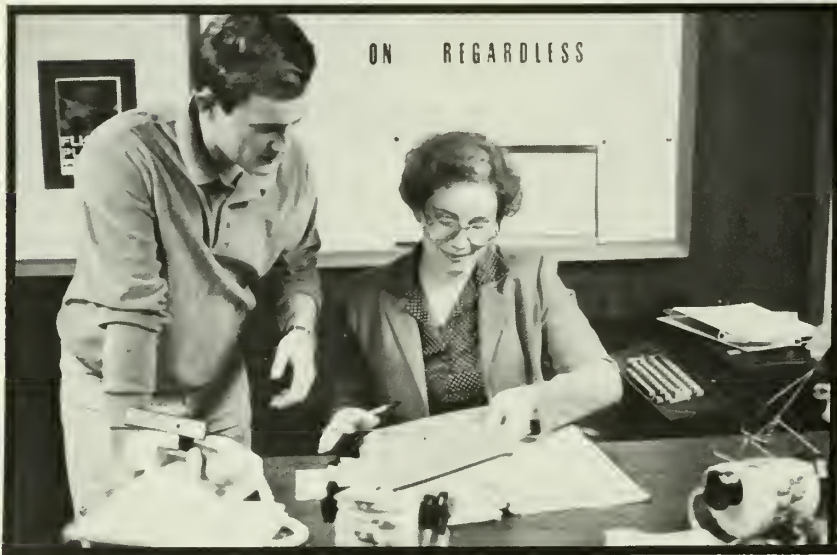

Graduation was held in the Gailard Municipal Auditorium on May 17, 1981. The guest speaker, former governor Mr. James B. Edwards, now head of the Department of Energy, was awarded an Honorary Doctorate of Humanities after he gave encouragement and inspiration to the Baptist College graduating class of '81.

Also present to provide musical entertainment were the B.C.C. Choir and Band.

B.C.C. Air Force Cadets

Baptist College at Charleston is proud to have one of the fastest growing Air Force R.O.T.C. units in the United States. Lt. Col. James Thomas was assigned to reconstruct the unit after the enrollment dropped drastically a little more than two years ago. Today, Charles Lemay and Mike Todd lead the unit of 81 cadets involved in rebuilding their outfit.

Twenty-six members of the 1981 graduating class entered the U.S. Air Force through the R.O.T.C. program. Associated with the unit are two organizations — Angel Flight and the Arnold Air Society. These two organizations have added greatly to their evergrowing branch of the United States Air Force.

A Weekend Of Fun And Fright!

There was a certain mist in the air as the BCC Activities Board set up for the Halloween Carnival. The special night set aside for the carnival arrived along with all who dared to take a trip on the Terror Train.

Many campus clubs and organizations entered a booth in hopes of raising money for members. The carnival featured everything, from a kissing booth with Lauren Locke which had to declare bankruptcy, to a jail which Tony Snell came to know very well.

Festivities continued the next night with the Halloween Disco. Witches, goblins and ghosts danced to the Monster Mash until midnight bells chimed sending all back into hiding until next year.

B.J. Thomas Graces Baptist College

Chapel/Auditorium Groundbreaking

Groundbreaking was held October 27, 1981 for the Baptist College Chapel-Auditorium. Two thousand enthusiastic people turned out for the ceremony.

The ROTC color guard opened the ceremony by presenting the colors. The Baptist College chorus, band and Tellers were present to provide musical entertainment.

We were very fortunate to have Mr. B.J. Thomas as our featured guest. Baptist College chose to honor Thomas because his life is built upon the same foundation which the chapel is to be built; Jesus Christ. A recipient of the "Male Vocalist of the Year" award, winner of four grammies and the first gospel artist to achieve platinum status, Thomas gave inspiration to all who attended. For his contributions to the field of Christian music, Thomas was awarded with an honorary Doctorate degree of Humanities.

The chapel will be named after Dr. W. Norris Lightsey because of his stewardship, faithfulness, dedication and love to this institution. Dr. Lightsey, chairman of the committee of Twenty-two, along with members of his family, were publicly honored for their efforts and gracious contributions toward the construction of the Lightsey Chapel-Auditorium.

The International Set

This year we are very fortunate to have with us 250 foreign students here at Baptist College.

These students represent the countries of Malaysia, Japan, India, Venezuela, El Salvador, Turkey, Ivory Coast, Nigeria, Chile, Brazil, Greece, Iran, Jordan, Kenya, Korea, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Trinidad, and Bolivia as well as Egypt, Cuba and Puerto Rico.

Imagine what it's like to be in a totally different environment, speaking a new language, eating Baptist College food, and trying to adapt to a new culture, then you'll have a vague idea of what it's like being a foreign student at Baptist College.

Bucs Finish With A

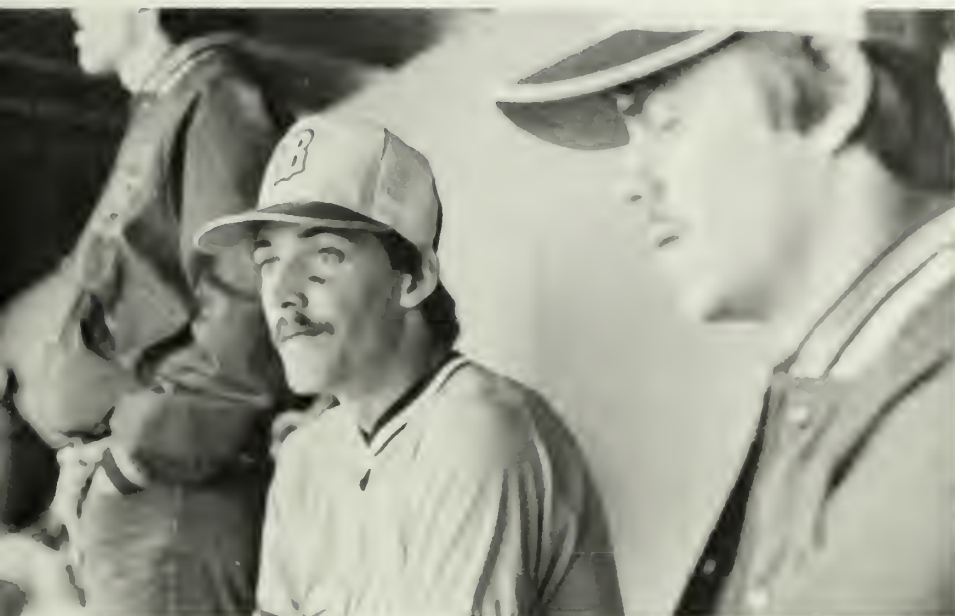

Fine 20 Win Season

"We're Going For

All We Can Win"

The BCC Baseball team posted a striking 20-14 season under the direction of Coach William Bustle. This is fantastic considering that they played against teams from UNC-Wilmington, University of South Carolina and Campbell University.

While the squad is looking fine, several new recruits will add some strength to the infield. Mike Rogers, left-handed pitcher; Stan Cottis, pitcher; Mike Werkin, catcher and John Spitzmiller are but a few of the newcomers that will boost the team's depth in the 1981-82 season.

When asked about the goals of next year's team, coach Bustle replied; "We're going for all we can win."

Soccer: A Kick

In The Grass

Bucs Score With Another Winning Season

Playing soccer isn't just a phrase being kicked around Baptist College. For the soccer team, it's a meaningful life full of action and ambition. Last year the team had a sensational winning season of 8-7-2. This year the team really out-did themselves with a grand season of 11-5-1.

Coach Eddie Marquez should be commended for the terrific job he has done with the team this year. With his leadership the team played and defeated teams such as Georgia Southern and Flagler in the NCAA Division I. This year's team captains were Jeff Kalinoski and Don Chenney.

Soccer may not be the most popular sport in today's headlines, but one can be certain that playing soccer for Baptist College is a real "kick in the grass."

Buccaneer spirit was genuinely boosted this year by the newly suited and experienced cheerleading squad. Under the excellent leadership of Billy Wright and Sandy Griffon, the squad learned that discipline, hard work and long hours paid off with the enthusiastic crowd needed for home court advantage.

Several cheerleaders attended the cheerleading camp in North Carolina this past summer which provided the squad with new ideas for chants and pyramids. Coach Howard Bagwell accompanied the squad to the Chattanooga Basketball Classic in Tennessee which enabled the squad to view other cheerleading squads in an effort to gain a better understanding of what cheer-leading is all about.

The close of this basketball season sees many sen-iors on the squad graduating and the new ones antici-pating the coming year. Looking to next year's student body they say, "We've got spirit, how about you?"

BUC POWER

Phil Carter, now in his second year as head Basketball coach at Baptist College, has turned the tide for the Bucs' basketball program. Much needed improvement was made in every statistical area. Eddie Talley remains the leading scorer for the Bucs. There are two other players, however, that have really made their mark on the scoreboard throughout the year. Howard Richardson and McKither Bodison have been hearing the chants of the cheerleaders and crowds yelling, "Raise that score!", and they have been doing just that.

The team's sudden winning streak at the end of last season had Coach Carter and assistants Wayne

Embry and Tom Seitz looking with eagerness upon the season to come. Entering this year's season, the Bucs held the nation's second-longest winning streak due to victories in their final five games of last season.

Much credit is due to the coaches and team members for a job very well done this season. More aggression and spirit is prevalent among the coaches, team members and especially the fans. This is definitely the attitude of a winning team, but this is only a beginning for the Bucs. We're behind you all the way Big Bucs!

Homecoming '82 Features

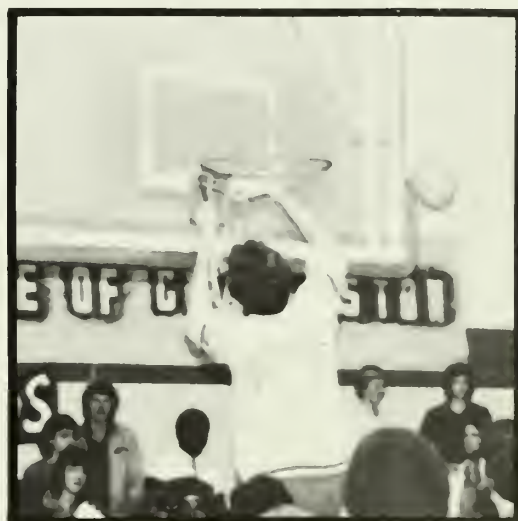

The Fantastic Shakers

Baptist College is THE College of Charleston! The Bucs proved this statement with a final Homecoming game score of 73-69 in overtime. The capacity Crowd yelled and screamed constantly urging the Bucs to victory against their crosstown rivals — The College of Charleston.

Excitement had been building all week with activities including a pep rally which ended with a cougar burn, introduction of Homecoming candidates at Convocation, and a dance featuring The Fantastic Shakers following the game. The Homecoming contestants were presented during halftime. Dorcas Herring escorted by Doug Eaton and sponsored by Psi Delta Phi was crowned Queen. The first runner-up was Michelle Brown, the second runner-up was Robin Brown, and the third runner-up was Julia Marsh.

In the ever so popular words of Aaron Dunn, this year's Homecoming was "too fine"!

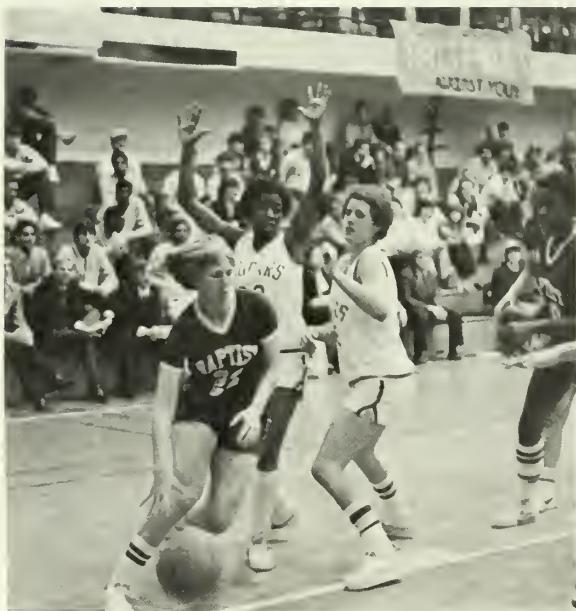

1982 Lady Bucs

This year's Lady Bucs have put forth a lot of hard work, mixed well with aggressiveness and hustle. Even though they didn't have a winning season, the nationally ranked teams they played, such as the College of Charleston, Pembroke, and Georgia Southern, definitely knew the Lady Bucs were a team to be contended with in the future.

The four seniors will be greatly missed next year by the entire school. This year's team consisted of: Libbey Causey, Velva Powell, Sheila Brown, Debra Fulton, Belinda Stanley, Amy Wessner, Mena Gibson, Karen Barrow and Brenda Dubose.

As it has been said many time, "Everyone can't be a winner." The Lady Bucs have found this out the hard way this year, but things WILL get better!

Lady Bucs In Action

Life On The Run

1981 Track And Field

The Baptist College Track team continued their winning tradition by posting a season of 14 wins and 5 losses.

Under the fine leadership of coaches Howard Bagwell, James Settle and Thad Talley, the Buccaneers were able to beat teams such as USC, Pembroke, Clemson, and Furman.

Several promising All-American recruits for the 1981-82 season are: Al Dunn, James Quinn, William Cooper and Daryl Anderson.

TRACK AND FIELD

"Our team has national and world class potential that will carry them to the national championships in Provo, Utah, not only to be there, but to score points. The hurdle relay team has the ability to break the current world record, so we look forward to a successful season."

There is a long way to go before we will be a good team, but with the few outstanding individuals we have this year and a good recruiting effort, next year we intend to be a great team."

TENNIS

"Looking over this year's team, I think this season will be the best one we've every had."

SOCCER

"Togetherness is what being a team is all about and this year's soccer team proved that. We set out to accomplish goals; one of them was to win 10 games. The season ended with a 11-5 record which is a well-deserved honor for such a mature and consistent team."

BOYS' BASKETBALL

"This year's basketball team proved to all that they can win. Students, faculty and the community have just cause to be proud of our institution."

BASEBALL

"We have a fine bunch of athletes who are looking forward to getting better as the year progresses and they should be a very promising team."

CROSS COUNTRY

"We were a very young team who performed extremely well this season by making many improvements. Teams that we lost to in the beginning of the season were beat at the end of the season, promising a bright future for our school."

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

"We've had a tough schedule this year, but high hopes and promising prospects for next year's team will enable us to work with the schedule much better."

In Memory Of Patsy Morley

PATSY MORLEY came to Baptist College in 1967. Her duties were as numerous as her titles. She went by many names which included: Patsy, P.M., Mother Morley, Dean Morley, and Mom. She was quiet about herself, but she always spoke out loudly in favor of the students. Her family included those she loved most — the students of Baptist College. It is unfortunate that every student who attends B.C.C. will not have the privilege of knowing Patsy, a lady who dedicated her life to her work. But this dedication will always be remembered of Patsy, who lived for B.C.C. and loved it dearly.

Marshalls

Being a graduation marshal is a great scholastic honor. To achieve this title, a student must be a second semester Junior with at least 75 to 90 credit hours. Five males and five females with the highest

G.P.R. are named for this honor. Also, one male and one female are named as alternates. This is a very special honor and these students should be commended for this achievement.

Seniors '82

"I can't believe you're leaving." "I'm really going to miss you!" "Don't forget to write." "So you're finally graduating. It's about time!"

Senior year is a time of mixed feelings ... remembering the people you have come to love, the people you worked with closely ... the friends you promised never to forget ... the places that mean so much to you ... and the anticipation of "making it on your own" make it a year of emotion and hard work.

Each activity brings to mind that this will be the last time ... the last Jr.-Sr., the last basketball game and finally the "last time I'll eat in the cafeteria. Amidst these, though, is the thought of what will go with you as well as those activities left behind.

Education is an individual thing ... whatever you put in, you get out. In the Declaration of Independence, Thomas Jefferson declared that one of the inherent and unalienable rights of men is "the pursuit of happiness." The privilege of being successful is yours and the decision and responsibilities that go with it are also yours. But, as Seniors, we must look to the past four years for example and anticipate the future with confidence and assurance that education has touched us and we have grown.

Anticipation . . .

Baptist College is very proud to have a terrific Junior class which is well-respected and appreciated. When a student reaches the status of Junior, he knows very well that he is no longer simply a college student, but is actively pursuing a career. Responsibilities of Juniors include: preparing Jr.-Sr., organizing panty raids, and renaming famous buildings such as Strom Stud Center. All in all our junior class has made their presence known and will not be easily forgotten.

"One year down, three more to go . . . will I ever make it?" Some of the courses taken during the first two years may not be the most interesting but then foundation courses are just that . . . courses on which you can grow.

The most beautiful building, adorned with sculpture is not built upon fragile adornments but on a brick and cement foundation. This foundation allows the most unique artist to create according to his individual taste and ability.

So it is with the sophomore year — one which further secures those with skills needed to branch out into various fields in the coming years.

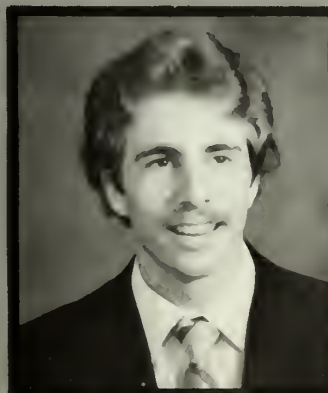

A fulfilling sophomore year at Baptist College consists mainly of losing sight of present course benefits and instead, looking to the future benefits. We all know that the future is as bright as those who have a desire to grasp it.

During Orientation week this past year, an individual was sighted wandering helplessly around Mt. Pleasant with a blank expression on his face. When asked by a local policeman what the problem was, his reply was "No problem, Sir, but could you please direct me to Norris Hall 105? I know it's around here somewhere. Could it be I made a wrong turn at the last stop light?" No doubt this youngster was a Freshman at Baptist College at Charleston.

Besides being totally lost, a Freshman must face the pressures of being away from home and meeting new friends. As the Freshman becomes more familiar with the campus, meets new friends, and experiences his first party raid, he finds that college can be fun as well as a learning experience if he isn't careful!

Closing

This year has been a real experience for the CUTLASS staff. We had several inexperienced staff members who were very eager to learn. Our advisor this year, Mrs. Claudia Bryant, was also inexperienced as she entered her new position as advisor. She does, however, bring with her an excellent background in photography. She has helped our photographers improve the quality of their pictures.

There is a lot of hard work involved in putting together a yearbook . . . a hard year of planning, "all-nighters," fights and fun and last-minute deadlines have finally come to a close. The day has arrived when we can actually see and appreciate all of our efforts in their final state — the 1982 CUTLASS.

We, the CUTLASS staff, proudly present to you what we think is a very good yearbook. We hope that all of you will enjoy this year's CUTLASS. I think that producing a yearbook is a true challenge. For those of you who enjoy a challenge, become a member of next year's CUTLASS staff.
